Sara pleads with Jason to reconsider going for full custody of Ifan when she receives an official letter from his solicitor.

Gaynor despairs in her empty house with no news from the police about her lost money and possessions.

After returning from their holiday, Britt worries about Garry's reaction as she realises how much of his money they've spent. Dani comes to terms with news that will change her life as she knows it.

As she accepts a job and makes herself at home in Cwmderi, Non does her utmost to conceal the reality of her life in Brecon from Mark.

A paranoid Gaynor starts pointing fingers and accusing people of the fraud, but she's caught by surprise when the police turn up to question Izzy.

As Gaynor endeavours to find out more about Izzy's monthly donation to Thailand, a hurt Izzy struggles to forgive her mother for suspecting her own daughter of fraud.
